BKPM Distributes CJ Indonesia Group Donations to Pelindo II

Jakarta, April 16, 2020 - Indonesia Investment Coordinating Board (BKPM) visited PT Pelabuhan Indonesia (Pelindo) II (Persero)/ IPC to distribute COVID-19 donations given by the CJ Indonesia Group. The delivery of aid was carried out by BKPM Committee Member, Yukki Nugrahawan Hanafi, and attended by the Secretary General of the Indonesian Logistics and Forwarding Association (ALFI) Akbar Djohan and Chairman of ALFI Jakarta, Adil Karim.

The aid was handed-over by Yukki to the President Director of IPC, Arif Suhartono and Chief of Tanjung Priok Port Authority, Jece Julita Piris. Yukki said that BKPM has the mandate to distribute aid provided by the CJ Indonesia Group to those in need.

"This is the first stage, we distributed 1,500 breads and milk to Pelindo II officers and the locals. There are still more than 100,000 breads and milk that we will share with the other parties in stages. We will also continue to communicate all forms of assistance from other investors in order to counter the COVID-19 outbreak," Yukki said.

All the activities at the port must continue to run well and safe, of course by taking into account health protocols determined by the government during this pandemic. The officers at the port are at the forefront of our nation's economy today.

"We are very grateful for any kind of help delivered by the Government. We do hope this COVID-19 pandemic will pass through fast and and let's hope our economy will recover from COVID-19", Arif Suhartono said.

As previously informed, BKPM received donations from the CJ Indonesia Group worth of IDR 4 billion, which were given in the form of medical equipment (rapid test kits and hand sanitizers) and nutritious food and beverage products in the form of 200,000 breads and 200,000 milk. These nutritious food and beverage products will be distributed in stages over 20 days. (
